REASON FOR TARDY BRIEF

Although, opposing counsel certified to the court that he mailed a copy of the Reply Brief to the undersigned on December 16, 2010, he did not do so. The undersigned telephoned the Supreme Court Clerk and requested that a copy of the brief be mailed to the undersigned. Same was postmarked by the Supreme Court's Pitney Bowes machine on December 22, 2010. Appellees' telephone has been disconnected, and neither the Supreme Court nor the Mississippi Bar could locate a current telephone number for him. The undersigned prays that his Brief shall be received and filed by the Clerk of this Court under the circumstances.

Dated: January 4, 2011.

Attorney for the Appellant

ARGUMENT

There is not one scintilla of new information to which the appellant should respond. Not one. The undersigned has searched high and low in Appellee's Brief and can find nothing that was not covered conclusively as to the manifest errors and clearly erroneous applications of law on the part of the learned chancellor. The Appellant stands on her Brief.

This is the 4th day of January, 2011.
